MINUTES

On motion of Trustee Daily, seconded by Trustee Jannetti and unanimously carried, the Board approved the Minutes of the Meeting of May 18, 2023.

MANAGEMENT REPORT

Director Montero announced that Yonkers Public Library's summer reading program had begun on June 1. All three libraries hosted separate events celebrating the launch of the program where students and families were signed up for library cards and introduced to the new Beanstack platform that monitors their progress. Director Montero also informed the Board that the popular Reading Buddies and Summer Meals programs will also return this summer and he would have more information at a later meeting.

Director Montero reported on the numerous book displays, blog posts and programs celebrating Pride Month, as well as a new gallery exhibit entitled "Love is the Only Norm" and the upcoming Drag Story Hour at Riverfront Library. He noted that YPL also participated in community events such as the first Yonkers Miniball and the Yonkers Pride Festival.

Director Montero announced that YPL released its staff Intranet and briefly demonstrated it to the Board. The Intranet is a staff source for internal news, documents and forms. He hoped that the self-service intranet would enhance the staff's organizational knowledge and, in turn, public service.

Assistant Director Porteus updated the Board on YPL's ongoing partnership with Sarah Lawrence College and the Community Leadership Internship Program (CLIP). Two CLIP interns will work at Riverfront Library through August, mainly assisting the Reference and Adult Services Department.

UNION REPRESENTATIVE'S REPORT

Representative Neider asked for a follow-up from Management on correspondence sent from the Union a week ago inquiring about the status of an employee who was involuntarily sent home on his or her own excused time. Assistant Director Porteus reported that she had just recently spoken to the parties involved and would follow up with the Union tomorrow with an update.

Yonkers Public Library (YPL) Board of Trustees Meeting
Management Report
July 19, 2023

Summer Reading Buddies: Summer Reading Buddies returned to Riverfront Library on July 5th. This intergenerational program, which is organized by Family Service Society of Yonkers (FSSY), pairs adult volunteers (“mentors”) with students in grades K-6 to read with them. In the first full week, 270 students participated in the program. Over 100 mentors are scheduled to participate over the course of the summer. Additionally, this year the program is working with other partners like Mercy College, whose audiology department will provide participants with free hearing tests. As always, elected officials have been scheduled to make visits to the program. This year’s special guests include Mayor Mike Spano, New York State Senate Majority Leader Andrea Stewart-Cousins, and County Executive George Latimer. The program runs through August 9th.

Nutritional Services at YPL: Once again, YPL is hosting summer meals with Yonkers Public Schools at the Riverfront Library and Will Library. YPS distributes 150 lunches on Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays and 300 lunches on Tuesday and Wednesdays (which are the Summer Reading Buddy days). It also distributes 100 breakfasts each weekday. Will Library receives 25 lunches each day. This is an important service for children experiencing food insecurity, especially during summer recess. Furthermore, YPL continued its partnership with Feeding Westchester by participating in the Summer Feeding program. This partnership was highlighted in news stories in the Yonkers Times and Mid Hudson News. Finally, YPL hosted a town hall on hunger with Feeding Westchester, Yonkers YMCA, and Yonkers Office for the Aging on June 29th, underscoring the library’s role as both a convener and a distribution point in addressing food insecurity issues.

Ancestry.com: Earlier in the year, several YPL librarians began to analyze usage statistics around the dozens of databases and online services that we subscribe to every year. YPL invests a significant amount of money in these resources, which range from streaming services (Kanopy) to language learning apps (Mango Languages) to research (Academic OneFile). Unfortunately, not all of them are used enough to justify their cost. Based on their analysis, YPL discontinued some subscriptions and started new ones. The main new addition to YPL’s roster of digital resources is Ancestry.com Library Edition. This service contains billions of indexed and searchable genealogical documents including birth certificates, obituaries, census records, and voter lists. Ancestry.com is completely free to anyone who accesses it from YPL’s public computers or wireless network. YPL additionally began a subscription to HeritageQuest Online, a more limited collection of genealogical records that YPL cardholders can access and search from home. Ancestry.com has many attributes that make it easy to market: name recognition, quality user interface and experience, and an easy-to-describe service and use case. YPL plans to promote the service extensively and use it as an opportunity to spotlight other digital resources.

Personalized Book for 1000BBK Finishers: YPL staff continue to innovate and create unique experiences for our patrons. Aili Whelan, head of children’s services, Laura Cacace, children’s librarian and published author, and Mario Pereria, graphic designer, co-wrote and designed a short picture book that can be personalized for any child that finishes the 1000 Books Before Kindergarten reading challenge. The book centers on a turtle [insert the name of the child] who just finished reading their thousandth book and is swimming back to the library. Along the way, the turtle meets many different friends who want to visit the library with them. As participants get close to completing the program we'll have a customized book with their name printed as a way to recognize their reading journey.

American Library Association Annual Conference Recap: Tyisha Baker, clerk supervisor at Riverfront, Elyse Schreiber, reference librarian at Riverfront Library, Arnaldo Torres, library assistant at Riverfront Library, and Shauna Porteus, deputy director, attended the American Library Association's Annual Conference in Chicago. The conference featured many speakers, including authors Judy Blume, Nikki Grimes, Amanda Gorman, and Dr. Carla Hayden along with thousands of workshops. Over 15,000 attendees representing public, private, academic, corporate libraries around the country came together for this annual conference. Workshop highlights include a panel discussion on the future of newly constructed public libraries being co-located with other service providers like health clinics, performing arts centers, nonprofit space, etc.; public libraries and workforce development centers partnering for stronger job assistance services; and the effects of open negotiations on collective bargaining. The conference yielded several ideas that staff would love to see implemented along with the realization that YPL is innovating beyond what was presented in workshops. YPL will begin applying to present at regional and statewide conferences to share our own innovative resources and services.

QUARTERLY REPORTS

RIVERFRONT LIBRARY QUARTERLY REPORT APRIL-JUNE 2023

The Riverfront Library strives to reflect the broad interests of the community through a balanced collection and through the provision of appropriate services and programs. Moreover, it continues to be a safe and welcoming place, and a place where patrons can find materials suitable to fostering their personal growth.

As demonstrated during the quarter under review, our efforts to serve the City of Yonkers define who we are as an institution. Whether in the Library building or online, we provide access to resources that can serve to strengthen both individual patrons and the local community.

And we are pleased to report that, through our new website, patrons are now able to book small meeting rooms online. Through the end of the month of June, more than 800 patrons have used these rooms for meetings and group study.

Programming

To determine the services and programs that we need to supply, the Riverfront Library considers, among other factors, our community's demographics. In these times, we pride ourselves as a welcoming place for newcomers, and we take it as part of our mission to provide opportunities for those most in need of them, including new immigrants, non-native English speakers, and others who seek the tools they need to contribute to our society. We are honored to work in a progressive library system that fights against censorship and honors the lives of all human beings.

Nearly 2,000 patrons attended programs offered by the Adult Department this quarter.

With the aim of providing every child in the community with access to reading materials and library services, the Children's Department continues to expand its programming. The Department presented 175 programs during the last quarter, drawing a total of 2,926 children and caregivers.

The Department hosted a two-day open house and ribbon-cutting event for the Small People's Space in April. The newly designed room is now called The Cove. The program was attended by Mayor Spano and other elected officials, as well as parents, caregivers, and representatives from various community-based organizations. The event included Story Time. There was also a musical performance with well over 300 people in attendance.

The Children's Department programs are designed to promote early literacy, to encourage reading for pleasure, and to provide children with opportunities to explore a variety of personal interests. Among the programs presented during the quarter were a session on Bracelet Making, a session on Robot Engineering, a session on Easter-egg decorating and an Easter-egg egg-hunt, a session on Magnetic Science, a Mother's Day Story & Craft, a Father's Day Story & Craft, and Legorama, as well as Babies & Books, Dental Story Time, Father Goose Stories, Tati Sabrina Story Time, Music by Zev, Paint & Juice,

QUARTERLY REPORTS

Katori Little Shakers, CAPE, Rainbow Craft & Snack, Rainbow Necklace & Snack, Drag Story Time, and Bubbles the Silly.

Other children's programs were presented off-site, such as storytimes at the Queen's Daughters Daycare, at Saint Peter's School, at the Small World Daycare, and at the Family Services of Yonkers Daycare.

Video game tournaments for tweens, teens, and adults proved to be a popular way to start our summer programming. And the summer kick-off was successful. The theme for summer reading this year is All Together Now.

Teen programming included sessions on financial planning, on weaving, and on sewing. There were also programs on college prep, including SAT/ACT test practice sessions, sessions on writing college essays, and information on HBCU schools. Also offered were Bath Fizzies craft sessions and a healthy assortment of movie screenings.

Our adult patrons engaged in a variety of programs, including sessions on financial literacy, on crafts, and on technology. There were also language-oriented sessions, including sessions on American Sign Language, ESL, and Spanish. Other notable programs this quarter included a ukulele class series taught by our own Elyse Schreiber, a history program on the LGBTQ+ community in Cherry Grove and Fire Island.

In honor of the 50th anniversary of Hip Hop, the musical traditions of this form of music in Yonkers were explored by author Jerome Enders, Dwight Fuller and TuT Publishing. Featured at this event was Enders' book Yonkers: The Lost City of Hip Hop. (This is the first in a series of events dedicated to celebrating Hip Hop music in the city of Yonkers during the course of this anniversary year.)

In June, a Future Stars Talent Showcase was held in the Riverfront Library auditorium. As future rising stars from Yonkers seized the occasion to take the stage, 150 patrons attended to show their support.

Notary Service

Children's Librarian Ralph Guida is a state-certified notary public. As such, and without charging a fee, he notarizes documents for the library's patrons. During the quarter under review, 167 documents were notarized by Mr. Guida.

Adult Services Department Librarian Oz Coto-Chang is also a state-certified notary public. He too has been providing free notary service to our patrons, having notarized 100 documents during the last quarter. (Though free, the notary service is available only by appointment.)

Community Engagement

The Riverfront Library staff have continued during the quarter to maintain partnerships with other community organizations so that, together with them, we can work to make a positive difference in people's lives.

QUARTERLY REPORTS

The Reference and Adult Services Department rendered library services and offered research help to a variety of groups, including P.S. 23, Gorton High School, the Vive School, My Sister's Place, and the Women's Civic Club of Nepperhan, Inc.

The Library continues to administer an internship program for students from Sarah Lawrence College. SLC students Olivia Keefe and Laurel Collins began in early June as our summer CLIP (Community Leadership Internship Program) interns. They are researching and writing about Yonkers history, as well as processing and describing archival materials.

In addition to these community involvements, Branch Administrator Sandy Amoyaw attended during this quarter meetings of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, the Yonkers Rotary International, and the Mayor's African-American Advisory Board, as well as meetings of the 3rd Precinct's National Night Out. Arnaldo Torres has continued his service as a board member on the YMCA's Board of Trustees, and librarian Eugene Howell continues to serve as the Library's liaison with the Community Network, enabling him to share important current information with the local community.

Continuing Education

To enhance their job performance, the Riverfront Library staff are encouraged to participate in professional development. To this end, staff members Tayisha Barker, Elyse Schreiber, and Arnaldo Torres attended the ALA Conference in Chicago. Having made new networking contacts there, they returned with novel ideas and a variety of print materials to add to the collection.

Members of the staff also attended various in-person training sessions and webinars, including the NYBLC (New York Black Librarians Caucus) Roundtable at the New York Library Association.

Library Director Jesse Montero and librarians Mary Robison and Michael Walsh met with consultant Natiba Guy-Clement of the Brooklyn Public Library's Special Collections Division. They discussed future planning for local history initiatives and the Yonkers Public Library archives.

Collection Development

The Riverfront Staff continue to devote time and thought to the task of collection development. We continue to augment our collections with new offerings in local history and African-American materials, and in Spanish language, Arabic language, and Ukrainian language materials, and LGBTQ+ topics..

Library Displays

Book displays in the Library help to create an inviting, informative, and effective learning environment. In addition, such displays – as well as the Library bulletin boards – can play a vital role in boosting circulation rates. Displays during this quarter included the following themes: Juneteenth, Mother's Day, LGBTQ+ Pride and Queer Fiction, Father's Day, National Poetry Month, Arab-American Heritage, Memorial Day, International Day of Music, Keep Your Imagination Blooming, and Children's Book Week.

Thank you, Riverfront Library staff, for your continued assistance to our patrons. Your hard work as a team has not gone unnoticed. The Riverfront Library Director, Deputy Director, and Administration congratulate you for doing a great job this quarter.

QUARTERLY REPORTS

GRINTON I. WILL LIBRARY QUARTERLY REPORT APRIL-JUNE 2023

The library is about creating traditions, memories, and community for all patrons. This year our second annual YPL Storywalk features the book "Wonder Walkers." Patrons of all ages were engaged in the beautiful illustrations and the story of two kids and their questions about nature: "Is the sun the world's light bulb?" "Is the wind the world breathing?" They wondered and we did too. We knew Summer Reading had officially arrived when patrons kicked it off with a night full of bubbles and music with the Bubble bus. Ms. Aili also created the 3rd annual "All Together Now" Lego video which featured a YPL bus driven by Hamlet, escorted to all 3 branches by Batman and the Batmobile. The Queen of England, a robot, hobbits, and other Lego literary characters joined together to take their final bows. We also celebrated our 3rd Annual Make Music Day with "Music with Zev", a movie showing of That's Entertainment, a compilation of musical dance scenes from MGM movies, and an afternoon with DJ Tristate Jericko, who played Motown and other popular classics. We've also started a new tradition at the library, our first 1000 books reader, Mateo, received a book in which he was featured as the main character. Written by our very own Aili Whelan and Laura Cacace, "Mateo and the 1000 Books" describes the adventures of the reader as he meets friends along his way to the library. Future 1000 book readers will receive their own personalized story.

Staff marked important and other celebratory months, like National Arab American Heritage Month and Juneteenth with book resources and carousels, creative bookmarks, and virtual and in-person programs. During the month of June, there was a Juneteenth special films series that included The Birth of a Nation, and for children, the movies: Freedom Day and Juneteenth for Mazie. We welcomed the spring season with our Seed Library program, a zoom presentation on Birding, Nature Walks, and a children's program called Don't Let Bugs Bug You. Patrons were invited to visit our Edible Gardens and harvest fresh herbs, flowers and vegetables. Furthermore, during Pride Month, the New York Historical Society partnered with various libraries including YPL to present Safe Haven: Gay Life in 1950s Cherry Grove. Other programming highlights include: Poetry Night Open Mic; Swelling and its Health Implications; Getting up from the Floor; Decoding Cancer; ¡Viva La Vida! Frida Kahlo, Demystifying Medicare, Enhanced Fitness with Tarsha, and Memoir writing. Inviting displays on topics of interest included National Poetry Month, Pride Month, Sexual Assault Awareness, Asian and Pacific American Heritage Month, Summer Time, Audiobook month, and Jazz appreciation.

Patrons often acknowledge the impact the library and our librarians make in their lives. They were appreciative and thankful for the N-95 masks made available to them during the poor air quality conditions caused by the Canadian wildfires. We also received a fun social media shout out from a published author who stated that without the Yonkers, NY Will library and its kind and knowledgeable librarians, she wouldn't have become a "kidlit" writer. Afterwards, we found her new book on our YA shelves. Other gratifying acknowledgements include: a gracious donation provided by a group who often meets at our facility; a special education teacher from Roosevelt who was happily able to borrow over ten copies of School Trip for her class assignment; a complimentary letter from Patricia Vaccarino, local author, thanking Michael Walsh for his great work at the library and the author chats he organizes in which she mentioned that the chats create more than conversations about books, they create a sense of community and a Lincoln High School career fair, where the library had a table and materials to share with the hopes of creating future librarians. To continue our goal of helping patrons navigate our building better, we created daily program schedules posted at both entrances, to direct patrons to programming locations and provide updates on any schedule changes.

City agencies and organizations requested meeting spaces for events and special programs. The Fire Department swore in new recruits in June. The Westchester County Board of Elections held early voting for the Primary Elections in the lower lobby. The Piano School Celebrated Rachmaninoff's 150th Birthday with a piano recital. DOROT Westchester presented "What'd You Say?!", a series of workshops for adults aged 60+ where they learned how to craft an original story about "entertaining" life experiences. Sustainable Westchester Power Program hosted an information session on the new supplier and rates. The Yonkers Board of Education Speech Department hosted their annual training. Lastly, the City of Yonkers Mobile Tax Unit set-up in the lower lobby and collected County of Westchester Taxes.

This quarter the Branch Administrator attended the Alzheimer's Research Forum; facilitated an ongoing meeting space for the Lived Experience Advisory Group with the Westchester Continuum of Care Partnership to end homelessness; provided a testing space for a home-instructed student who needed to take two NYS regents exams; facilitated the building showings of the documentary titled, A Race to Be Human; attended a Leading with Confidence webinar; and interviewed candidates for various vacancies. We are happy to report the transfer of Tina Lucchese to the Adult department and the promotion of Zaivy Luke-Aleman from part-time computer page to full-time circulation clerk. Special thanks goes to the Will staff for their patience during the repaving of Central Avenue.

QUARTERLY REPORTS

CRESTWOOD BRANCH QUARTERLY REPORT APRIL-JUNE 2023

We started out the quarter with staffing changes - saying hello to Andrew Gmitter, our new part-time custodian, and bidding farewell to Hali Mentzer, part time page. We had the opportunity to celebrate Crestwood Crew accomplishments with the community at large, as well as all of YPL, at the end of the quarter including Phil's, Matt's & Natalie's (and Ash our intern's) School Graduations plus Alison's acceptance into Library Graduate School, Maria's end of internship and Jackie's end of another library school semester.

The biggest physical IT improvement was the installation of two WLS public terminals, one upstairs in the Teen Room and one downstairs in the Children's Room, augmenting our computing access. Carlos Figueroa facilitated 7 brand new iPads at the end of the quarter for patron in-house programming and staff use. YPL's rebranding, including migrating to the new website and logo reveal for National Library week, was also a big highlight and culmination of YPL staff's dedication and hard work.

Hastings Repair fixed our roof and gutter damage from a fallen tree. Ground improvements included Paul Emond's starting of the grouting of the patio tiles in the Crestwood Courtyard. Russell Martinez hung up the AED machine in the entrance stairwell for ease of use from downstairs and upstairs plus he oversaw the sprinkler system repair. Removal of the sneeze guards marked a step in the direction of forging ahead despite COVID's still being 'out there.'

CHS Meeting this quarter was on the topic of "How Crestwood Got Its Name," presented by President Karen Frederick, who also put together a basic fact sheet about the Crestwood Community for ready reference use for school projects and community curiosity. This sheet is a welcome resource, housed in our local history shelving display.

In YPL Sustainability news, Library Trainee Jackie Leone co-spearheaded the YPL Seed Library with Ana Gantzer from Riverfront. Under Jackie's guidance and green thumb, our raised garden bed and potato sacks are brimming with growth. She also made DIY soaps as prizes for the YPL Seed Library Bingo and made it possible for us to give out 15 White Pine saplings to our community members on Arbor Day. She also led a community clean up in the communal forested area close to the train station.

Spring also brought the revival of senior in person programming with our former "News & Brews" being transformed into Senior Talk Thursdays. The pollinator garden was tended to by James the Nursery Supervisor and his team, who report to Steve Sansone, Commissioner of Parks and Recreation.

Zoom continues to be a popular platform for connecting people to library services and materials. A fun one was "Shelf Indulgence: Libraries in Pop Culture with Clive Young!" that took an amusing, upbeat look at how libraries and librarians are portrayed in movies, TV, rock videos and more.

We had a class visit from School 15, Ms. Wright's special education class, where we shared library resources and taught information literacy skills.

QUARTERLY REPORTS

National Library Week highlights included an in-person self-care workshop on Self Massage with Cathy McGibney. We had our first 1000 Books Before Kindergarten reader reach 1000 Books since the program has been revamped post-pandemic - congratulations Saoirse!

Crestwood Crew was busy learning how to use our new summer reading platform Beanstack, re-building Yonkers Public School Book Lists and Reading Assignments on both Beanstack and our new website in preparation for our 2023 Summer Reading Program "All Together Now".

Yonkers Public School Summer Reading lists remained the same, additional books were ordered, ZOOM sessions on how to register for the program via Beanstack, and Grab and Go kits, plus in person and ZOOM programs were all created in support of summer reading literacy.

A contactless pick up option still remains and is used during open browsing hours by many of our patrons.

Mary Nowak continues to create inviting displays on timely and topical themes including Earth Day, Autism Awareness, Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage, Star Wars, Cinco De Mayo, Mental Health Awareness Month, Memorial Day, Juneteenth, and Pride. Natalie Varker and Carina Zegers created several activity packets on the above mentioned themes for our patrons to use both in-house and to take home.

Community connections remain strong with our NNORC partnership at the forefront. Library patrons use our suite of 9am zoom wellness/fitness health programs to start their day. A meaningful community outreach event was Branch Manager Z's involvement with the Lincoln High School Career Fair where she tabled with YPL staff member Laura Cacace from Will Library. They spoke to over 100 teens about librarianship as a career and library services.

One new partnership was with Big Apple Honor Flight (BAHF), a nonprofit organization whose mission is to fly veterans from NYC to DC to honor them for all their sacrifices. Mark Giordano, who lives in Crestwood, approached us to be a hub where people could write or drop off letters to share with veterans. Over 150 letters were created and collected to share. A big thank you to our Crestwood Crew (especially Mary and Jackie) for making the Honor Flight Program such a tremendous success.

Another new partnership was with the Westchester Women's Agenda hybrid program on the topic of scams, in conjunction with Pace Center for Justice. This was a unique program because it was on ZOOM and streamed in all 3 locations of Yonkers Public Library simultaneously in real time.

Friends of Crestwood Library championed Make Music Day raising $\frac{3}{4}$ of the funds needed to book the Tom Flammia Jazz Trio. It was a great concert that brought together people of all ages. They also held their first post-pandemic Bake Sale raising funds so that Friends can sponsor many literacy and wellness events for children, teens, adults, and seniors. On May 2, Friends of Crestwood Library held its Annual Meeting in-person at the Library. Special Friends sponsored events, such as "The Magic of Wool" demonstration and a Fire Prevention and Safety presentation were offered to the community this quarter. Friends also held their first Chess Tournament this past April 15. Some board members met with Crestwood Community Fund Co-chair Kristen McDermott to discuss the art of successful fundraising. This year's Memorial Day Parade and Ceremony returned after two years of virtual ceremonies and Friends of Crestwood Library walked in the parade and were joined by part-time librarian Nancy Wissman.

Staff training opportunities included Christine Bietetti conducting a 3-D printer training session onsite at Crestwood, Zoom YPL Training for Newspaper Research, an in-person tour of Sherwood House Museum that helped staff see and experience local history.

We're in the full swing of Summer Reading and opted to kick-off the summer with a variety of different performances and workshops for all ages instead of one big kick off. A few highlights from our kickoff schedule: Crafts for a Cause, Earring Making with Joan Lloyd (have fun, do good!); Celebrating Global Beatles Day with Musician Eddie Fiscella and surprise special guest John Fiscella (live music indoors due to inclement weather); Monday, June 26th "Celebrate 626 Day" (activities, food and fun centered around Disney's Stitch Character, helping us celebrate the uniqueness in us all) all day with special Cooper the Therapy Dog appearance; "All Together Now: Looking at Art" virtually with Professor Val Franco; Crafternoon: Special Edition "Precubs of Love" (making crochet or knitted blankets for premature babies); Chess and a screening of Lilo & Stitch Movie to bring together our Crestwood Library Community "Ohana", which means family.

None of the above would be possible without the YPL staff's commitment to customer service, vision and working together. For that I would like to commend them for another exceptional quarter, one to be remembered!

Patrons from across Yonkers and surrounding communities continue visiting us virtually and physically. They appreciate our strong ZOOM offerings coupled with our building being open for services like printing, reference, readers' advisory, browsing, and being a cool destination on hot summer days. We continue to serve the people of Yonkers and beyond and strive to create a Crestwood Library Experience that people will not soon forget.

Z. Baird
Crestwood Library Manager

TECHNICAL PROCESSING DEPARTMENT QUARTERLY REPORT APRIL-JUNE 2023

The Tech. Processing Department is still in our temporary office space on the main floor. We are making the best of a very reduced work area and the staff has been very patient and understanding as we navigate around one another, our desks, book carts, and deliveries.

The beginning of June was a busy ordering time with the departments placing as many orders as possible to meet the end of the fiscal year deadline for the invoices to be paid by the City of Yonkers. The orders were done to complete the budget allotments for June. The director will give out new budget allotments for each department for the new fiscal year starting July 1, 2023.

All summer reading orders have been placed and the books processed as soon as they are received.

The continuations and periodicals updates have been received from the departments and changes will be made accordingly.

The Baker & Taylor Book Leasing Program continues to provide shelf ready new books for the branches that use their monthly quotas to obtain titles for their collections. These titles are then returned when they are no longer popular circulating items.

Several staff members continue to take part in the DEI meetings.

Tech Processing accommodates all requests from the departments for information, processed materials, and orders using whatever resources are necessary and available. Contacting and working with vendors is a large part of our work.

Monthly budget balances are provided to each Department Head so that they can manage their ordering allotments.

Mary DiChiara
Technical Processing Dept.

CUSTODIAL DEPARTMENT QUARTERLY REPORT APRIL-JUNE 2023

In this quarter, my staff in all three facilities have been focused on constant disinfecting of high touch areas multiple times daily. We will continue this practice for the foreseeable future.

Crestwood

- All outdoor furniture has been cleaned for use.
- In March during a very strong wind storm one of our neighbor's tree limbs partially fell onto our property causing some roof and gutter damage. Hastings roof repair has completed the repairs to the roof and gutters.
- The Crestwood sign is in need of replacement. I am currently pricing a new longer lasting sign that will endure the elements.

Will

- To ensure the cleanest possible air quality, all air handler filters have again been replaced with the high quality Merv 13 filters.
- This quarter we began the spruce up of the Incubator room on the mezzanine level. As requested, new ghost shelving was installed. Both rooms and the outer area received fresh paint. Also new doors have been hung and brighter lighting was installed.
- In April the temporary chiller was installed. In May the old chiller and cooling tower was removed.
- During routine inspection we found the emergency sump pumps had failed and the basement flooded with groundwater. We quickly installed and ran our backup pumps. A.C Furia pump repair was called and found the check valves had gone bad. That repair was made the following day.

Riverfront

- This quarter we assembled a number of new chairs for the Circulation department and Literacy department as well.
- My staff has removed the remaining old signage from all areas.
- We installed a new light peg board and touch board to the Sensory room.
- We also hung new YPL banners in the front of the Library and over the entrance doors.

Staff

This quarter we hired a new part time custodian for Crestwood Andrew Gmitter. The previous Custodian John Patterson handed in his resignation. His last day will be July 6th.

Russell Martinez,
Supervisor of Custodians
